

Meeting in Seattle Southside Doesn't Have to be Routine

When it comes to meetings, Seattle Southside has over 50 different meeting venues to choose from. It is the perfect location to hold a meeting for any type of group. Seattle Southside consists of the cities of Tukwila, SeaTac, Kent and Des Moines, Wash. and is about 15 minutes south of downtown Seattle with dozens of attractions for any type of group to enjoy.

Seattle Southside is home to several venues that offer meetings spaces that are unique, unusual and far from normal. From indoor gokart racing, to ice skating, Seattle Southside has it all! The following Southside meeting venues can make a meeting thrilling rather than routine.

SyKart has one of the largest indoor kart racing tracks and allows drivers to experience the thrill of fast, fun, indoor go-karting. SyKart specifically caters to corporate and meeting groups who want a fun environment for teambuilding, a staff meeting, or a holiday party. They have over 3,000 square feet of meeting space and private lounges throughout the facility.

The Spirit of Washington Event Center is a modern, state of the art meeting facility located just feet away from the famous Spirit of Washington Dinner Train Depot. With room to accommodate over 600 guests, this beautiful facility can be home to weddings, events, trade shows, meetings, and more. The facility is surrounded by Piazza Park with abundant landscaping and an attractive fountain.

Acme Bowl provides fun with 51,000 square feet of bowling, meeting space, restaurant, lounge and billiards it will be a premier destination for meetings of all types. The feel of the complex combines a cutting-edge urban/industrial environment with the social entertainment of bowling, billiards, and dining (all non-smoking). The facility can accommodate 10 to 1,000 guests.

The Family Fun Center is another great location with facilities to hold small group meetings. With an onsite restaurant and activities for breakout sessions, the Family Fun Center offers several levels of group rates and rentals. Teambuilding may be an option as the meeting group heads out to play a round of miniature golf, try their chances in the batting cages, climb the rock wall, try the trampoline sling-shot, spend some time on bumper boats or go-karts, or take the whole group in for a round of laser tag.
